Destination weddings

Getting married abroad is the best way of limiting guest numbers and giving both yourselves and your loved ones a romantic trip of a lifetime. Design Hotels is your go-to site to find ultimate luxury hotels and wedding hotspots, and while it was tough picking, our favourite was the Zash Country Boutique Hotel in Sicily, Italy. It ticks every box when it comes to romance – history, elegance, tranquility, beauty – and the perfect place to spend your honeymoon too. That's amore!
